The property and business interest of the Bay Canning Company of Bay St. Louis, was sold Tuesday at a private sale between the owners forming the company to R. W. Beck, owner and operator of a canning factory at Gulfport, Miss. It was purchased as a going concern and will be continued by the new owner.

The Bay Canning Company of which J. Randolph Ladner was president, was organized some two or three years ago to purchase the Tulluvahl interests of Biloxi, Miss., which a short time previously had built and originated the business. The company, under Mr. Ladner's direction, prospered and served the community to advantage inasmuch it gave work to the regular and surplus

Two Incians From Oklahoma to Be Honor Scouts Of Treop—Interesting Program.

The following announcement and data will be of interest to every scout of not only Bay St. Louis but to every member in the surrounding area for many miles.

Who should know more about Indians than the Indians, themselves? That's what Mr. R. D. Crow, Scout Executive of the New Orleans Area Council, must have figured when he recently secured the service of two Indians for the Camp Salmon summer session.

Those two Indians are Honor Scouts of the Troop at the Government reservation at Tahlequah, Oklahoma. They are full-blooded Cherokee Indians, both 17 years old, and both are adept at tracking, beadwork, leathercraft and Indian Lore of all descriptions.

It will be the duty of these Indians to make the Scout Camp's Indian Village as realistic as possible. The Indian Village is always one of the feature attractions to visitors who

This summer, to all indications, is going to be the biggest of all in the history of the camp. Camp Salmon was founded in 1924 and was the gift of the late Fritz Salmon, prominent lumberman. In 1924 the Camp was merely a row of tents in poorly drained location. In 1925 8 cabins were constructed and the drainage improved. From that time on the progress of the Camp has been nothing short of miraculous. it now boasts 23 cabins, a hospital valued at $1500, a mess hall valued at $1500, a land ship valued at $750 and a cabin cruiser valued at $950. camp also boasts of 50 pirogues, of which 30 are spanking new, an old historic Creole home, used as a museum, and up-to-date concrete swimming pool which is valued at $10.-000. Thirty Boys of Troop 217 Suprrised With Beach Party Wednesday.

Called by Scout Master Fred Fayard to attend a regular scout meeting Wednesday night, members of Scout Troop 217 were agreeably surprised when they were taken on a beach party near the old Peerless factory site.

The boys met at the scout house and were conveyed by truck and auto to the camp site. A large bon fire was immediately built by the boys. The night was ideal for such an occasion with moon shining bright and cool breezes adding to the setting.

After games had been indulged in marshmallows were roasted, followed by serving of hot dog sandwiches and cold drinks. The scouts expressed their appreciation in thanks to Scout

Master Fayard and Mr. Henry Osoinach, who additionally treated them. The scouts of this troop are lookis expected to be held shortly. This outing means much to the boys and is the high spot in the present life of the scouts. The place and dates will be announced later.

The troop has its own tents and equipment for such camping and are always attended at all times on such outings by some men of the community who are interested in scouting. All boys atending the camp are well provided for and looked after. Safety is is the motto at all times.

The public is asked to help sponsor this occasion. You parents can do much for your boys by seeing that they attend this outing which means much for their health and betterment. There are no better boys than scouts.

(Summit Sun.) "THE preacher has a great time. If his hair is gray, he is too old. If he is a young man, he has not had experience enough. If he has ten children, he has too many. If he has one he is setting a bad example. If his wife sings in the choir, she is presuming, and if she does not, she isn't interested in her husband's work. If the preacher reads from notes, he is a bore, and if he speaks extemporaneously, he isn't deep enough. If he stays at home in his study, he doesn't mix enough with the people; if he is seen around the streets, he ought to be at home getting up a good sermon. If he calls on the poor, he is playing to the grand-stand; if he calls at the homes of the wealthy, he is an aristocrat. Whatever he does,
